

BULLETIN BOARDS

Working Guidelines

Nov. 13th, 2008

What is allowed:

- People looking for their lost pets
- Any event notice for a non-profit organization
- Dog educational items
- Park rule reminders
- LDOA information
- All posters should be animal related

What we do NOT allowed:

- For profit posters. Examples: pet sitters, businesses
- People selling animals

Procedure:

- People must contact LDOA before any ad is placed on the board.
- If an unapproved ad is found on the board, it is to be taken down immediately.
- Notify Off leash park liaison of the ad, giving all information
- He/she will contact the people;
 - If it is a business we will let them know why the ad was taken down.
 - If it is a non-profit organization hosting an animal related event we will do some research to make sure the event is legal.
- A record of all ads is kept. Posted and/or declined.

Other Items:

- Posters can remain on the board for 1 month. Exceptions would be families looking for a lost pet.
- All notices must be laminated and attached to the board with tape. No pins, nails or staples.
- Other signage that is located through-out the Off leash parks must be approved by the London Dog Owners Association executive.
